

“The last thing HPE wants is for its new acquisition to come with a small, yet litigious, competitor attached. For example, Cisco has already been taken to court by Vir2us”

“Remember when I mentioned Vir2us suing Cisco? What would give the little company enough chutzpah to go after a giant like Cisco?” Well, I had a look at the most important patents in cybersecurity. Turns out Vir2us is in positions 3 and 4 on the list of the most cited patents.”
